VOLUME II.

From October, 1832, To October, 1833.

NEW-YORK:
P. PRICE, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

P. PRICE, PRINTER, 3 CHATHAM-SQUARE.
1833.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE

Messenger, to be published simultaneously at New-York and Philadelphia, under the title of

N. Y. CHRISTIAN MESSENGER,

AND PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSALIST.

In presenting proposals for the third Vol. of the Messenger it is merely necessary to say, that no essential change will be made, unless it may be to avail ourselves of every possible opportunity of increasing the talent and interest in its columns. It will, in the language it has ever held forth to the world, continue to "plead the cause of a slandered and persecuted denomination of Christians the UNIVERSALISTS;" endeavor to inspire confidence among its friends, and to induce as far as possible the thoughtless and unconcerned, and even opposers, to come forward into the field of examination and "reason together" on the great and glorious doctrines of a world's reconciliation to God.

TERMS.—The "N. Y. Christian Messenger and Philadelphia Universalist," will be published simultaneously in New-York and Philadelphia, every Saturday morning, on a royal sheet, quarto form, and close print, at $2 per annum, in advance, or $2 50 if not paid within the first six months. The first No. will appear on the first Saturday in Nov. 1833.

The publishing office in New-York is at No's. 2 and 3 Marble Building, Chatham Square, and in Philadelphia, for the present, at No. 132 Chesnut street adjoining the United States Bank.

P. PRICE,
Publisher and Proprietor.

NEW-YORK, OCT. 1833.
